April and May turn tracks into mud. Standard vans read more get stuck, and recovery can take hours.

Choose a 4x4 with a driver who knows the sodden routes, and build slack into the itinerary.

Some camps close entirely. Airstrips may be unusable, so fly-in plans need contingency. Rain also brings fewer vehicles and better rates. Wet season guidance is at %LINK%.

