

It also helps to think about total value Frisco window replacement instead of sticker price alone. How much does window replacement cost in Frisco TX for a 2,500 sq ft home is a common question, but the better question is what the money buys. If a better window lowers glare, helps the AC cycle less, and lasts longer in the sun, the price difference often makes sense over time.