Personal industrial suppliers authorized by local mobility departments.

Authorities Administrative Vendors: The Town Hall (Gemeente/ Commune)

When people search for a "driving license Browse around this site vendor" in Belgium, they are generally searching for the supreme authority that prints and hands over the physical card. In Belgium, you can not buy a driving license, nor can you get one through personal suppliers or third-party brokers. The only legal issuer of the physical document is the regional municipal administration.

The Issuance Procedure

1. Registration: The applicant must be officially registered in the national computer registry and hold a valid Belgian electronic identity card (eID) or home authorization.
2. Submission: Once theoretical and useful exams are successfully finished (or a foreign license is effectively converted), the candidate sends their application files to the Gemeente or Commune.
3. Production: The town orders the safe card from the federal production center.
4. Collection: Typically within 3 to 5 working days, the applicant go back to the town hall to gather their official credit-card-style European Union driving license.

Checking Vendors: Theory and Practice

To specify where a municipality will provide a license, candidates need to interact with specialized testing suppliers. These organizations are strictly investigated and approved by the regional ministries of mobility.

1. Theoretical Exam Vendors

Before getting behind the wheel for formal lessons, applicants should pass a theoretical test (covering traffic guidelines, road signs, and right of way laws).

- The Process: Tests are taken at licensed examination centers situated throughout the nation.
- Languages: Exams can be taken in the main regional language (Dutch, French, or German), along with in English through a translator system at specific places.
- Common Vendors: Companies like SBAT (in Flanders), Autosecurite, and AIB Vincotte run these centers under rigorous federal government oversight.

2. Practical Exam Vendors

Once a student has actually completed the requisite hours of driving school guideline or logged sufficient hours with a licensed guide, they need to schedule a useful driving test.
