

5 REASONS WHY MEDIATION IS A BETTER OPTION THAN DIVORCE PROCEEDINGS

Divorce mediation is a process whereby spouses use a trained and impartial mediator to help them create an agreement to resolve their issues. The mediator does not make any decisions on couples behalf. However, the mediator may suggest that the parties seek help from a specialist to deal with specific disputes.

More Affordable Option

Since mediation operates without the need to hire an attorney, the expense of mediation is less expensive than going through an official divorce.

Far Less Tedious and Antagonizing

Mediators are experienced in keeping things calm so that both parties can arrive at an amicable settlement they can each live with.

Faster Resolutions

Divorce proceedings can sometimes take months or even years to complete. Mediated divorces are much faster, often occurring in a matter of a few weeks or months.

Secure Process

The best part of mediation is it's a confidential process. There is no public record of what goes on during a mediation session.

Mediation often settle divorce issues.

If you and your spouse negotiate in good faith and not just for the sake of appearances, you can resolve all or appearances, you can resolve all issues without going to court.

TOPICS TO BE DISCUSSED DURING YOUR MEDIATION SESSION

- ✓ Share/split of parental responsibilities.
- ✓ Division of property, including the family patrimony and other patrimonial rights resulting from the marriage.
- ✓ The division of property acquired jointly while you were living together.
- ✓ Financial support provided by one spouse (in the case of a marriage or civil union, or in the case of a de facto union if support was provided for in a cohabitation contract).
