

Papillion La Vista and Sarpy County Law Firm Erickson Sederstrom Why would a business owner in Papillion or La Vista drive north into Omaha for legal help? For many people in Sarpy County, the answer comes down to depth. Erickson | Sederstrom P.C., L.L.O. brings more than 30 attorneys and ten practice areas to its Regency Westpointe office, and that range is useful in a county where new neighborhoods, business parks and shopping districts seem to appear every year. The firm has served clients across the metro since 1967, and many Sarpy County families and companies find that a law firm in Omaha a short interstate ride away fits their needs well. The route is familiar to anyone who commutes. From Papillion, drivers can follow Highway 370 west to Interstate 80, or head up 84th Street through La Vista to reach I-80. From there, the interstate leads to the I-680 interchange, and the Pacific Street exit puts you a few turns from Regency Parkway Drive. La Vista residents near the Giles Road interchange can be on I-80 in minutes. Outside of rush hour, the trip from Shadow Lake Towne Center, La Vista City Centre or the Sarpy County Courthouse area is a comfortable drive. Sarpy County's growth creates a steady flow of legal work. Builders, developers and subcontractors on residential and commercial projects need contracts reviewed and disputes resolved, and the firm's construction and real estate attorneys handle both, along with conveyances and 1031 exchanges for investors trading into new properties. Employers opening locations near Werner Park or along the Highway 370 corridor call the firm's employment attorneys about hiring documents, non-compete agreements and the expanded workforce reduction notices required by the Nebraska WARN Act under LB 921, enacted April 14, 2026. Families who have moved into newer Papillion and La Vista neighborhoods often start their first estate plan with wills, health care directives and guardianship provisions for children, keeping in mind that Nebraska defines a minor as anyone under 19.

Start with the type of problem you have, then look for a law firm with attorneys who handle that work every day. Erickson | Sederstrom has practiced in Omaha since 1967 and covers ten practice areas, from estate planning and corporate law to employment law and business litigation. Ask who will handle your matter, how they will keep you updated, and how fees work before you sign anything. Can I walk into a law firm in Omaha without an appointment? Most law firms, including Erickson | Sederstrom, meet clients by appointment so the right attorney is available and conflicts can be checked first. Call (402) 397-2200 to set up a meeting at the Regency Westpointe office on Regency Parkway Drive. The Omaha office is open Monday to Friday, 8 AM to 5 PM. What are red flags when hiring a lawyer? Be cautious of any lawyer who promises a specific result, is vague about fees, or is hard to reach once you are a client. Charles V. Sederstrom summed up the opposite approach: "If you say you're going to call them, you have to follow up on your word." Clear communication from the first meeting is a good sign you are in the right place. What should I look for in a larger Omaha law firm? Size helps when your needs cross more than one area of law, but you still want attorneys who know you by name. Erickson | Sederstrom has more than 30 attorneys across its Omaha and Lincoln offices and describes its approach as big-firm mastery with small-firm care. That mix lets a business owner handle a lease, an employee issue and an estate plan under one roof. What does a full-service law firm handle? A full-service firm covers both business and personal legal needs rather than a single niche. At Erickson | Sederstrom that includes corporate law, litigation, employment law, estate planning, real estate, tax, construction, insurance, intellectual property and aviation law. Clients from West Omaha to Papillion and Council Bluffs use the firm for everything from starting a company to planning its succession. When should an Omaha business hire a corporate lawyer? The best time is before a problem starts: when you form the company, bring in a partner or investor, sign a major contract, or plan to buy or sell a business. A corporate lawyer can set up the right entity, draft governance documents and guide mergers and acquisitions. Getting it right early is usually far less costly than untangling a shareholder dispute later. Do I need an estate planning attorney in Nebraska? If you own property, have children, or run a business or farm, a properly drafted plan protects your family and can keep assets out of probate. Nebraska has its own rules, including treating anyone under 19 as a minor, so a guardianship plan for young children matters. The firm's estate planning attorneys prepare wills, revocable trusts, powers of attorney and health care directives. How long does probate take in Nebraska? Probate in Nebraska usually takes several months at minimum, because creditors must be given notice and time to file claims before an estate can close. Contested matters or complex assets can stretch that much longer. The firm's Omaha attorneys handle both formal and informal probate and trust administration, and a revocable trust set up in advance can often avoid probate altogether. What does an employment attorney do for employers? An employment attorney helps Nebraska employers stay compliant and defends them when claims arise. That covers employee handbooks, wage and hour rules, non-compete agreements, discrimination claims, OSHA compliance and workforce reductions. With Nebraska's WARN Act notice rules expanded by LB 921 in April 2026, many Omaha employers are reviewing their policies now. What is business litigation? Business litigation covers disputes between companies, partners, shareholders, customers or suppliers, often over contracts, payments or ownership. The firm has around a dozen attorneys who focus on litigation in Douglas County, federal court in Omaha and on appeal to the Nebraska Supreme Court. Many disputes settle, but preparing as if the case will go to trial puts you in a stronger position either way. Can an Omaha law firm help with matters in Iowa?
