Open your oven door and take an honest look. If you see last Christmas still clinging to the bottom, you are in good company. Ovens and refrigerators are two of the hardest-working appliances in any Roanoke home, and two of the least cleaned. The Happy Housekeepers includes cleaning the interior of ovens and refrigerators among its specialized house cleaning tasks, and it has been helping Roanoke Valley households with these jobs since 1979.

These tasks are separate from the complete kitchen clean-up that comes with every standard visit. That clean-up keeps counters, sinks and floors in shape, while the specialized interior work goes inside the appliances where spills, splatters and forgotten leftovers hide. Combining both gives you a kitchen that is clean all the way through.

An oven interior that has not been cleaned in a while can smoke when you preheat it, and old residue can affect the taste of what you bake. Inside the refrigerator, sticky shelves and drawers hold onto odors and make it harder to keep food fresh. Cleaning both every few months keeps your appliances pleasant to use and can help them last longer.

The Happy Housekeepers | 5145 Starkey Rd, Roanoke, VA 24018 | (540) 774-4299

The most popular times to schedule this service around Roanoke are early November, ahead of Thanksgiving, and the weeks before a big gathering like a graduation party or a family reunion. It is also a smart addition to a move-in or move-out cleaning, since nobody wants to inherit the previous owner's refrigerator or hand over an oven full of baked-on grease at closing.

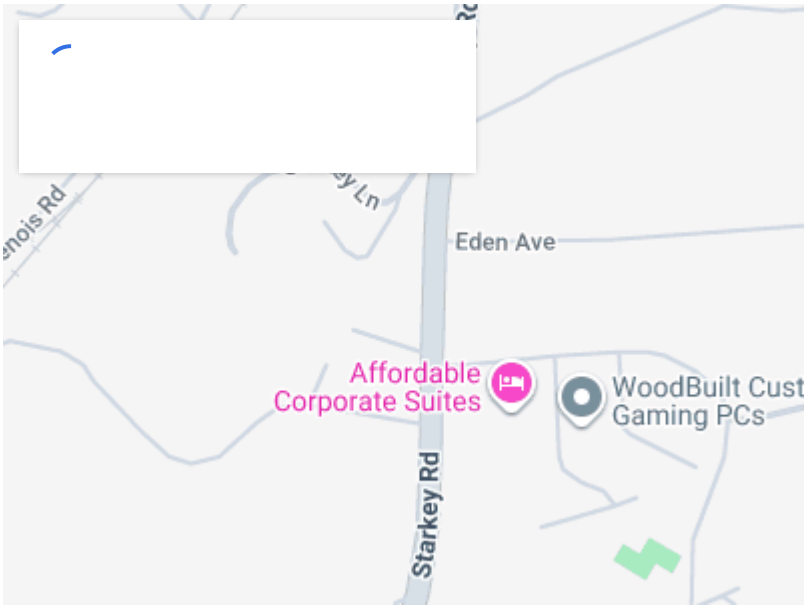

Recurring customers often rotate this service into their regular schedule. A weekly or bi-weekly plan might include the refrigerator interior one month and the oven the next, which spreads the work out without making any single visit run long. Monthly customers sometimes add both during their spring or fall cleaning.

The Happy Housekeepers is licensed, bonded and insured, and its best house cleaning in Roanoke staff are bonded and insured by the business, so you do not need to be home. Estimates are free and carry no obligation. The company holds a BBB blue seal and accepts Visa, Mastercard, American Express and Discover.

There is also a health angle worth mentioning. Spilled juice, leaking meat packages and forgotten produce can leave residue in refrigerator drawers that you would rather not think about, especially in a home with young children or older relatives. Having the interior cleaned on a regular rotation is a simple way to keep food storage sanitary, and it is far easier than spending a Saturday afternoon emptying shelves and scrubbing them yourself.

Give your appliances a fresh start. Call The Happy Housekeepers at (540) 774-4299 or stop by 5145 Starkey Rd in Roanoke to add oven and refrigerator interior cleaning to your next visit.
