CS2 roulette is a digital betting game hosted on third-party sites where gamers utilize virtual weapon skins (or site-specific currency stemmed from depositing skins) to put bets on the result of a spinning wheel.

Unlike traditional gambling establishment roulette, which utilizes numbers 0 through 36, CS2 roulette wheels are usually divided into three or 4 color-coded segments-- most typically Red, Black, and Green (often joined by a rare yellow or multiplier section).

How a Standard Round Works:

1. Deposit: A player logs into a CS2 betting site utilizing their Steam account and deposits virtual weapon skins from their inventory.
2. Conversion: The site values the skins in real-world currency (GBP, EUR) or site coins.
3. Betting: Players put bets on which color the wheel will land on before the timer expires.
4. The Spin: The wheel spins digitally, and the winning color is figured out by a provably reasonable algorithm.
5. Payout: Winners receive a payment proportional to the odds of their selected color, while losers forfeit their staked items/coins.

Understanding Wheel Variations and Odds

Different platforms provide special twists on the timeless formula. The payment structure directly correlates to the mathematical likelihood of striking a particular color. Below is a breakdown of the most typical roulette variations found across CS2 betting platforms.

Requirement 3-Color Roulette (Red, Black, Green)

Color Segment Payout Odds Approximate Probability Home Edge (Typical) Red 2x 47.5% ~ 5% (due to Green)
Black 2x 47.5% ~ 5% (due to Green) Green 14x 5.0% ~ 5%
