Despite being located inside Ridgefields Country Club, Fusion at Ridgefields is open to the public, meaning no membership is required to enjoy lunch, dinner, or Sunday brunch at the restaurant. This open door policy has helped the restaurant build a broader following across Kingsport, drawing guests who might not otherwise visit a country club setting for a meal. The patio, overlooking the club grounds, is available to all guests, giving non members the same scenic dining experience as club members visiting for a round of golf.
