A full day out with packed breakfast and lunch covers more ground and reaches areas other vehicles skip.

It suits photographers and anyone chasing the migration, but it is tiring in heat.

Ask for shade, water and a proper lunch stop rather than eating in the luxury wildlife safari packages vehicle. Families with small children should stick to half days. Full day options are at %LINK%.