

Local San Antonio Lawyer Versus a Statewide Advertising Firm Drive down I-10 or Loop 410 and you'll see plenty of billboards for injury lawyers. Some belong to firms based right here. Others belong to firms with offices across Texas and ads on every channel. Both kinds of firms help people, and plenty do good work. The real question isn't which type is better in general. It's which one fits your situation, your injuries and the way you want to be treated. A local firm brings something specific: it knows the ground your case happened on. If you were hit at Fredericksburg Road and Wurzbach Road, or during rush hour at Huebner Road and I-10, a lawyer who lives here already knows how those intersections back up, where the construction zones are and how traffic flows at 5 p.m. A local team knows how to pull a CR-3 crash report through TxDOT, whether SAPD or the Bexar County Sheriff's Office took the call, and how treatment usually runs through University Hospital, Methodist Hospital and the clinics around the South Texas Medical Center. That background can save time while evidence is still fresh. Size and footprint also affect who you talk to. Before you sign with anyone, it's fair to ask a few plain questions. Who will handle my case day to day? Will I have the same team from start to finish? How often will I hear from you? Can I reach someone after hours? How do your fees work? Any firm, large or small, local or statewide, should answer those clearly. If the answers feel vague, keep asking until they don't.

The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC | 3015 Napier Pk, San Antonio, TX 78231 | (210) 922-0808

The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC is a San Antonio firm. Founder Alex Aguirre grew up here, was licensed San Antonio car injury lawyer at 25 and has more than 20 years of personal injury experience. He is a former board member of the San Antonio Trial Lawyers Association and once taught as an adjunct professor at Northwest Vista College. The firm describes its approach as small local firm attention with big firm results, with the same team working your case from start to finish and staff reachable 24/7 by call, email or text. If you want a San Antonio car accident lawyer who works on contingency, there's no fee unless they win. Whatever you decide, don't wait too long. Texas gives you two years for most injury claims, and evidence fades much faster than that. For a free consultation, call (210) 922-0808. The Napier Park office at 3015 Napier Pk is just off Loop 1604, a short drive from Castle Hills, the Medical Center and the I-10 corridor.

The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC Address: 3015 Napier Pk, San Antonio, TX 78231 Phone: (210) 922-0808 FAQ About San Antonio Car Accident Lawyer How much do lawyers take from a car accident settlement in Texas? Most Texas car accident lawyers work on contingency, so their fee is a percentage of what they recover and nothing if they lose. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC handles San Antonio car accident cases this way, with no upfront cost and no fee unless the firm wins. The exact percentage is set out in your written fee agreement before any work starts, so there are no surprises. How hard is it to win a car accident lawsuit? It depends on the evidence. Clear fault, a CR-3 crash report, photos, witnesses and consistent medical records make a claim much stronger. Founder Alex Aguirre spent the start of his career defending insurance companies, so the firm knows the arguments insurers use to deny or shrink claims and prepares for them early. Most cases settle, but the team is ready to go to trial when an offer is unfair. What is my San Antonio car accident claim worth? No honest lawyer can put a number on your claim without looking at the details. Value depends on your medical bills, future treatment, lost wages, the severity of your injuries and how clear the other driver's fault is. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC reviews all of this in a free consultation and explains what compensation may be realistic for your situation. What should I do after a car accident in San Antonio? Check everyone for injuries, call 911 and get the report number from SAPD or the Bexar County Sheriff's Office. Take photos of the vehicles and the scene, get witness details and see a doctor quickly, even if you feel fine. Then call The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC at (210) 922-0808, which is open 24 hours a day. Can I recover compensation if I was partially at fault? Yes, in many cases. Texas uses modified comparative fault, so you can still recover as long as you are less than 51 percent responsible, although your award is reduced by your share of the blame. Insurers often push extra fault onto injured drivers after crashes at busy spots like Loop 1604 and I-10, and the firm works to challenge that with evidence. Should I talk to the other driver's insurance company? It's best not to give a recorded statement before you get legal advice. Adjusters can use casual comments like "I'm fine" to argue your injuries aren't serious. Alex Aguirre knows these tactics from his years on the defense side, and his team can handle insurer calls for you from the first day. How long do I have to file a car accident claim in Texas? Texas generally gives you two years from the date of the crash to file a personal injury lawsuit, and two years from the date of death for a wrongful death claim. Some claims, such as those involving a government vehicle, can have earlier notice requirements. Calling The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC early gives the team time to gather evidence before it disappears. What compensation can I get after a San Antonio car wreck? You may be able to recover current and future medical costs, lost wages and earning capacity, property damage, pain and suffering, mental anguish and physical impairment. In cases of gross negligence, such as some drunk driving crashes, Texas law may also allow exemplary damages. The firm reviews every category so nothing gets left out of your claim. What if the driver who hit me has no insurance? Your own policy may still protect you. Texas insurers must offer uninsured and underinsured motorist coverage and personal injury protection, and PIP is included unless you rejected it in writing. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC reviews your policy for free and pursues every available source of recovery, including in hit and run cases. Do I need a lawyer for a minor car accident? If nobody was hurt and the damage is small, you may not need one. If you have pain, missed work or the insurer is disputing fault, a free consultation is worth the call. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC will tell you plainly whether your San Antonio crash needs legal help. How long does a car accident settlement take in Texas? Simple claims can settle in a few months, while serious injury cases often take longer because you need to finish treatment before the full cost is known. Clients of the firm often mention regular update calls from paralegal Jackie and case manager Nicole, so you're never left guessing where your case stands. Does the firm help Spanish-speaking clients? Yes. Hablamos Espanol, and the firm offers language assistance so Spanish-speaking clients can discuss their case comfortably. Founder Alex Aguirre is a San Antonio native and a former president of the Mexican American Bar Association. Call (210) 922-0808 for a free consultation in English or Spanish.
